First just with a rubber pressing technology and later, since 1950, with the technology of rubber extrusion. Since 1966 with the technology of rubber injection. The company itself has had its own rubber compounds rolling mill since 1962. Since 2005 company produce also technical components by technology of thermoplastic and thermoelastomers injection.

Today the company produces a variety of technical products designed especially for automotive industry, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering and building industry.

Important part of company's product range is a production of car mats. In 1991 the company was transformed from state own company into joint-stock company, privatized and later transformed into incorporated company.
